

The project Message in a Bottle represents the intercultural dialogue offered by the XV Biennale de la Mediterranee, "Symbiosis?", held in Thessaloniki 6 October - 6 November 2011. The gesture of sending off a message to the unknown is a standard metaphor for a cry for help. The artists participating in this Biennale were invited to send their own signal of exhortation, political, personal,

The idea was born after the kind donation of 22.000 bottles of the famous Natural Sparkling Water "Doubia" that belongs to the Malamatina Group.

The action is sponsored by artistic or other.

Sparkling by nature.

An endless source of freshness and life... the original, rare, precious and unique «Doubia». Originating from Chalkidiki, "Doubia" spring is one of the three rare, naturally carbonated springs in Greece – and among the few in the world. Light, healthy and refreshing, "Doubia" sparkling water suits any moment of the day.
